

The Shelter House on Grand Mesa's Lands End stands on the point where the Lands End road finally attains the flat topped surface of Grand Mesa. From this building the observer can see the great irregular rocky cliffs that edge the mesa, running for miles in each direction, can gaze down on the countless loops of the road climbing its way up.

SANBORN SOUVENIR CO., DENVER, COLO.

POST CARD

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

OB20-N

1501—Shelter House on Lands End, Grand Mesa National Forest, Colorado

